We beg to inform the public that we have formed a co-partnership for the purpose of transacting a General Land Business. We will advertise extensively all lands that are placed in our hands for sale.

The Pacific a Misnomer. Items of Interest Along the Coast.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., Sep. 10, '90.

DEAR INTERIOR.—My little trip from Redona Beach on the ocean was anything but pleasant. In fact, I was as sea-sick as a dog, and every time I'd move my first ejaculation would be "New York," with great emphasis. Went on board the steamer Tuesday evening, and from that time till Thursday morning not a thing could I get to stick on my stomach. I didn't attempt to eat anything on the boat—the very sight of vittuals made me sick. Wasn't out of my berth an hour during the voyage, and for a day or two after getting on land it seemed to me that everything was rolling and dipping like the steamer. I had ridden on the Pacific before, and on the Atlantic, Chesapeake Bay and two of the great Lakes, but had never experienced the least nausea, and had begun to think I was proof against sea-sickness. I was not without company in my afflictions, however. Several others were as bad off as myself, and the worst of it was, they had to go on to San Francisco. I shall feel a little shy of the ocean hereafter.

Watermelons are very large and plentiful, and the extremely low price at which they are sold is pretty well illustrated by the following: A gentleman sent his son to a fruit-stand for a melon, giving him 10 cents to buy it and a gunny sack to bring it in. After a while he was surprised to see the boy coming with one so large that he had been obliged to borrow a wheelbarrow to carry it, and he also had 5 cents left. Said he could not possibly bring a 10-cent one without a horse and wagon.

The beach is a favorite resort in the afternoons. Some go to bathe—others to sit in the cool breeze and look on. The water being shallow for a considerable distance out, the bottom smooth and sandy and the waves coming in lively, combine to make a surf both very pleasant and invigorating. Then there are no sea-nettles; really, nothing to mar the fun. Unlike the bathers in the Atlantic, the gentlemen and ladies scarcely ever go in together. In fact, very few men bathe—mostly women and children.

A company is boring for gas in the town limits near the beach. They have not found any gas yet, but have struck several weak artesian streams of water. Natural gas would be a great blessing here, as fuel is so high, and the indications are that it will be struck.

The drying of fruit has been especially profitable this season, the prices being higher than for years. The process is simple and requires very little expenditure for apparatus. Peaches and apricots are cut in halves, and, after the stones are removed, are placed closely together on trays, usually two by three feet. As there is no danger of rain at this season, the drying progresses without delay, and the hot sun soon cures them. Then the trays are put into an upright box, with a space of two or three inches between them, a little sulphur is lighted at the bottom of the box and the door closed tightly. After half an hour the fruit is removed and exposed to the sun a short while and the curing is complete. The sulphur bath serves two purposes: it bleaches and improves the appearance of the fruit and keeps away insects. Sun-dried fruit is now preferred to evaporated, as the delicate flavor is better preserved. Raisins are sometimes dried simply by laying the bunches of grapes on the ground between the rows of vines. These grapes are the Muscatels, the very same thing as the Malaga grapes, I think. They grow to a greater perfection and dry more prettily in the interior than along the coast.

GENERAL NOTES.
A few strawberries are still to be seen in the markets.

It is claimed that a firm in Pomona made over $1,000 in three weeks drying fruit.

A 40-acre tract at Santa Maria is said to have yielded $10,000 worth of fruit this year.

It is estimated that the California prune crop this year will be close to 15,000,000 pounds.

In a single day as many as 210 car-loads of canned goods and dried fruits have been shipped from Los Angeles to the East.

Monroe Salisbury, a California millionaire, has placed $80,000 in the hands of a Lexington, Ky., firm for the purchase of brood mares.

Some one has discovered that a deco-

tion of the green leaves of the eucalyptus tree is a stronger and more lasting stimulant than tea or coffee and more pleasant in its effects, as it does not cause wakefulness. It seems to have the stimulating effects of quinine without any of its injurious qualities. T. R. W.

Letter From Georgia.

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)

AUGUSTA, Sept. 16. One year ago I wrote a short letter to your paper, thinking it would interest some of your readers, and now I send you another, thinking it will not be out of place. I have been here since last Christmas and am thoroughly acclimated, though I am bound to acknowledge a little homesick, but the way things stand I know not when I will see old Kentucky again. Trade here now is opening up lively. Finest cotton crop for years. The only trouble cotton has declined in price from 11c to 9c, quite a fall off, and a great many are holding for better prices. Notwithstanding all this, the receipt up to the present time has surpassed anything for years. A great many farmers whose notes are not due till Oct. 15th, are paying them off now. This is a great country and improving every year.

There is no doubt but what the Alliance is controlling and working things their own way in politics. They never fail to get there with their man. They beat G. T. Barnes for Congress in this district, a man who ranks as one of the best men in the South, and the end has not come. The time is not far off when no one but an Alliance man can be elected. They can boycott and break any mill, merchant or any other enterprise they see proper. However, they don't do this often. It has proved to be a success for this part of the country.

There is not a possibility of a doubt but what all the farmers in this State are benefited. Great improvements here since last year. We have 20 miles of street railway run by electricity; have done away with the mules and horses altogether. This is an old town, but she certainly is on a boom now. The prospect for trade this fall in horses and mules is very flattering. Money is plentiful.

I have received your paper twice a week since I came here regularly, Wednesdays and Saturdays, and am always glad to get it, but it does seem as if everything is very quiet down about Monticello. Can't hear much from home through the JOURNAL.

I hope soon to be in Stanford and will report in person what is going on down here. Have been here alone for four months, but I trust it won't be the case next year. B. F. OATES.

Smiths and Browns in New York.

Who is there in this great metropolis that isn't acquainted with some one named Smith? And yet there are not so many of them as is generally believed. If one were asked to guess the number of Smiths in the city it would be quite natural to place the figure as high as 10,000. To be sure, the new directory devotes thirty-five columns to the distinguished family, but there are only 2,824 of them. Of these 113 are plain John Smiths, and 122 are John-with-an-initial-Smiths. The Browns number 1,639, and there are 80 Brownses. This is a decrease of 7 compared with last year, when there were 87. The decrease may be taken as an indication that the final e is going out of fashion.—New York Times.

Walters of High Lineage.

There is a saloon keeper near Ninth and Walnut who has had half a dozen poverty stricken sons of noble German families employed as waiters in his place. An alleged "count" or two, a couple of sons of German "barons," wearing white aprons, have been features of the saloon during the past year. A patron of the place says that the proprietor was a republican in the fatherland, and that he takes pleasure in having the descendants of his old oppressors serve him in menial capacities.—Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

The Fruitless Season.

Invalid Wife—Dearest, what have you in that basket? Something nice for your poor little wife?

Fond Husband—Yes, my own. I have sold my best saddle horse and bought you a dozen pears and three peaches.

I. W.—You noble, self-sacrificing fellow! Let me reciprocate. Here are my diamond earrings. Sell them and buy the children a watermelon.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

Rev. Dr. Burchard is summing up in Saratoga. He is a well preserved, handsome and affable old gentleman. A correspondent says that the venerable doctor fits well into Saratoga life, and there is nothing he likes better than to sit down in the evening to a game of cards with some bright young ladies.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Thomas Moran bought of W. A. Gilpin a pair of mules for $225.

—Our town is greatly in need of a livery stable. One cannot supply the demand. Any one can make good business here.

—The hard rains of last week caused the river to change its color and our expert, lucky fishermen lined the banks for miles around.

—The watermelon wagons are seen no more on our streets. They are gone where the whangdoodle mourneth and the woodbine twinneth.

—Quite a lively crowd of young ladies and gentlemen visited the chinquapin grove Sunday afternoon. All seemed to enjoy themselves greatly.

—When the weary one has retired to his pleasant couch for the night, he is aroused from his peaceful slumbers at the hour of midnight by the melodious cries and melancholy voices of the raging Tom Cats.

—James Noel suffered a serious accident Monday. He was out driving and the horse became scared and ran away, turning over the buggy and breaking his collar bone and left leg. He also received other bruises on the head.

—Your reporter was in Liberty Monday gossiping news and swallowing items. I noticed that J. W. Whipp had declined the idea of building a brick store and was building a frame. I suppose the hotel will not be rebuilt where the former one burned down.

—S. V. Wells, of Jessamine, was here Monday representing the Continental Insurance Co. Several of our townsmen insured with him. W. Austin, of McKinney, moved here Monday. Several from here attended the Somerset fair. M. D. Royalty had a fine mare to sell Saturday. Rev. Ward, of McKinney, preached here Sunday. Tellus Gann sprained his wrist Monday. M. Ritchie returned to his home in Ohio Monday. Mrs. Scott, of Kansas, has returned home from a month's visit here. Perry Wesley returned from Russell Springs Tuesday. Mrs. Miller is able to be around again after a severe spell of sickness. John Wheat is handling calico and domestic behind the counters of Perry Wesley. Dr. Smith, of Lebanon, was in town Tuesday. McWheat is suffering from a severe attack of boils. He has our deepest sympathy for we have been there and had to face the music. J. S. Cowan has bought a farm from M. Jones. He will move to it shortly. Pat Humphrey left Monday to attend the Kentucky College of Medicine at Louisville, in view of making a doctor of himself.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—In the police court, Wednesday, Judge Hemphill fined Cicero Humber $50 for selling liquor on "Battle Row."

—On last Sunday night the union services, which have been held during the summer months, were discontinued and in the future the regular services will be held at each church.

—Miss Jennie Faulkner has been appointed to a clerkship for the Kentucky Commissioner of the World's Fair. The Misses Colson, of Middlesboro, who have been visiting their brother-in-law, W. B. Moss, are attending the Richmond fair this week. Mrs. J. W. Miller and daughter, Miss Mary, have returned home after a pleasant visit to Mrs. W. S. Miller, of Knoxville, Tenn. W. R. Marrs, who is now traveling for a millinery house, is here for a few days. Mrs. Robert H. Young, of Lexington, is at her father's, Dr. Wm. Huffman, on Richmond avenue. J. H. Brown and family have returned from a two weeks' visit at Mt. Vernon. R. L. Elkin and wife have gone to Louisville to visit Mrs. E. S. father, Col. D. R. Collier. Mr. Elkin thinks of locating permanently in Louisville. Our popular circuit clerk, W. B. Mason, attended the Danville court on Tuesday. Quite a number of Lancaster folks attended the Richmond fair this week. Misses Clara Orchard and Ida Manley, of Bloomington, Ind., are the guests of Miss Juliet D. Gill, on Lexington. Mr. Walter Nichols, of the Record, is at his post again after a short spell of sickness.

—The Queen & Crescent route is adding to its equipment 200 new freight cars, with automatic air brakes.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The 10th annual meeting of the Kentucky Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at Richmond Oct. 1, 2 and 3.

—Gen. Green Clay Smith preached at the Metropolitan Baptist church, Washington, Sunday, to which he had received a call and which he will likely accept.

—Ballittsburg Baptist church is arranging for its 99th anniversary. For 39 years Dr. J. A. Kirtley has been its pastor. He succeeded his father, who served 29 years.

—Rev. Mr. Harris, of the Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, is holding a revival at McKinney, and his discourses are spoken of very highly by those who have heard him.

—The Kentucky Southern Methodist Conference, just closed at Lexington, had local preachers, 121; white members, 27,602; infant baptisms, 373; adult baptisms, 960; churches, 245; parsonages, 52; Sunday-schools, 234; officers and teachers, 1,818; scholars, 13,790.

—Eld. J. T. Sherrard held a meeting at Porter, in Scott, and increased the membership from 26 to 96. Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., has just closed a meeting at Blue Licks, with 46 additions, 25 of them in one night. Eld. T. M. Myers closed an 18-day meeting at Vanceburg with 79 additions.

—The Lexington Conference passed the prohibition resolution because, perhaps, they can take their toddies and not be found out, but when a resolution to request all the ministers to desist from the use of tobacco now and forever was presented, they very promptly laid it on the table.

—The Methodist Conference at Lexington resolved on the whisky question, "That we use all honorable means to secure total abstinence for the individual and total prohibition for the State. That the traffic in and use as a beverage is a sin and that we can not consistently as Christians license a wrong and that we are unutterably opposed to any system of license, high or low. That we view with alarm the fact that nine-tenths of the liquor business in the country is in the hands of foreign syndicates and individuals of foreign birth, who have no interest in our moral and religious institutions."

—Following are the conference appointments for this, the Danville district: Presiding Elder, J. Rand; Danville, E. H. Pearce and W. E. Arnold; Harrodsburg, F. S. Pollitt; Perryville, F. K. Struve; Mackville, J. M. Wilson; Chaplin, H. C. Wright; Lawrenceburg, W. T. Poynter—one to be supplied; Orr, to be supplied by W. P. Vought; Salvisa, E. H. Godbey; Jessamine, W. S. Terrill; Moreland, G. G. Ragan; High Bridge, W. B. Ragan. In the Cumberland District J. W. Gardner goes to London and Manchester, W. W. McClure to Broadhead, M. P. Morgan to Pineville, and S. W. Pepples to Middlesboro. Crab Orchard is to be supplied. The next meeting will be with the church at Harrodsburg.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Seven couples have separated in Westminster, says the Courier, in the last month. Marriage seems to be a failure there.

—Jack Kenney, 82, and Miss Sarah Harn, 70, were married in Fleming county Saturday. Miss Sarah came mighty near living and dying an old maid.

—It is quietly reported around that a certain person connected with the McKinney post-office and a young preacher will unite in the holy bonds of matrimony in about a couple of weeks. We would call names but we promised not to tell.

—An examination of the hole through which the five prisoners escaped from the new jail at Pineville shows that the job was most fearfully neglected. The specifications called for steel dowels in the stones, but they were not regarded and the prisoners cut out the soft mortar with a piece of stove pipe and shoved the stone out.

—At Lake Pearl, Mass., A. H. Heilborn and Thomas Richards made an attempt to swim a mile, run a mile, walk a mile and ride a bicycle a mile inside of one hour. Heilborn accomplished the feat in 54 minutes 9-3-5 seconds, and Richards in 54 minutes and 15 seconds.

WASHINGTON CO. STOCK & GRAIN FARM

AT PRIVATE SALE.
To close a partnership, we offer at private sale our Farm of Nearly Five Hundred Acres.

Near Mooreville Washington county.

This Farm is situated on the turnpike leading from Mooreville to Chaplin and is about 15 miles from Springfield, 7 miles from Bloomfield, 5 miles from Valley Hill, a depot on the railroad between Bardonia and Springfield, and about an hour's run from Louisville. There is on the Farm a good comfortable house of 4 rooms, the main building a brick, having burned a year or so ago and all necessary farm buildings, consisting of stables, corn cribs, granary, smoke house, buggy house, poultry house and yard and two large tobacco barns. A good portion of this land is in blue-grass, timothy and clover and has a bountiful supply of water. In short, it is a highly productive Farm, which the crops of grasses, grain and tobacco grown on it yearly attest. It is an incontrovertible fact that Washington county lands have been selling 25 to 30 per cent, cheaper than lands of a like character in any other part of the State, and this has undoubtedly been due to the fact that the county has been without railroad facilities, until the past two years. No county in the State raises finer horses, cattle, blue-grass, grain or tobacco. Our sole reason for offering to sell this farm is to close our partnership, and to give the land a new owner, who will see that it is improved on good terms, we will sell the cheapest farm in Kentucky. No us to go West, and you'll say so, when you see this land. To parties who might want this land we will say that it is susceptible of division and we will sell to suit purchaser. Call on us on the place or address us at Mooreville, Ky. 44-6m A. C. & JOHN TAYLOR.

THEY have gone to work in earnest on the street leading to the cut-off pike. The out-houses of the heirs of Mrs. Mollie Myers are all being moved back so as to give the street the proper width, and engineers are making the final location and estimates.

"V. A. M." are the initials of a society organized by the young ladies of the College here and the members of it will be known by a handsome pin they wear bearing those letters. The society is after the order of the well remembered "P. G. B's."

Two freight trains tried to pass each other on the same track near Wilmore, on the Q. & C., yesterday. Result, cars and engines piled up in a shapeless mass and great damage sustained. Nobody seriously hurt, however. All trains delayed several hours.

WHERE IS HE?—The Rev. John J. Laferty, editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate, wants to know the whereabouts of Lemuel W. Powell, who once lived at Powell's Mill, near Crozet, Albemarle county, Va. Dr. Laferty's address is Richmond, Va.

PLEASANT.—Miss Louise Bailey very delightfully entertained some 20 of her friends at her home Wednesday evening in honor of her relative, Miss Wallace. Games and tete-a-tetes were enjoyed and a beautiful and well-served lunch was freely partaken of.

THE accident which delayed Monday's day passenger train seems to have been a deliberate attempt to wreck No. 5, on the main line. A cross-tie across the track came near throwing the whole train off, but fortunately it was running slow when it struck it and no great injury resulted.

BEACH & BOWERS gave one of their laughable entertainments to a fair audience at the Opera House in this city Friday night of last week. The company well sustained its reputation of long standing for giving a real first-class minstrel show for the country.—Danville Advocate. At Walton's Opera House Sept. 27.

EXCURSIONS.—On Sept. 21 to 26 the Queen & Crescent Route will sell round-trip tickets to Cincinnati and return from all points between Somerset and Williamsburg at special excursion rates, on account of the races on the Queen City Full Mile Driving Club course. Tickets will be good for return until Sep. 29, allowing plenty of time for visiting points of interest in the metropolis.

Not since the time of old sun bonnets has there been a fashion so popular as the jaunty little cap which now has the day with the ladies for a head covering. It is popular for several reasons: the prime of which probably is the ease with which it adorns the head and the nonchalant air it gives to the wearer. A milliner told us that she had made dozen after dozens of them, her order book was nearly full, and still the cry was for more.

THE ARSON CASE CONTINUED.—Sheriff Newland arrested Jim Cain Monday night, charged with Pete and Tom Cain, Doc Russell and son, Mart Smith and others with robbing and burning J. H. Carter's store, and at 1 o'clock Tuesday all the cases were continued till next Monday at 10 o'clock. Doc Russell's bail was fixed at $500, but he could not give it. The others did not apply and all were returned to jail. So far as we can gather the prosecution, which will be assisted by Col. Welch in addition to the lawyers named in our last, will make out a pretty bad case. Russell will be represented by Lawyer Davison and perhaps Col. Bradley, the others by Hill & McRoberts.

STRAYED.—An Alderney yearling heifer. I would be obliged for information of her whereabouts. D. W. Vandever.

I WILL begin next week to collect town taxes and ask that the citizens of Stanford be ready when I call on them. O. J. Newland, Marshal.

NOTICE.—Dr. J. F. Peyton and I. M. Bruce, committee, will receive bids till Saturday, Sept. 27, for lighting and cleaning the street lamps by the month.

C. L. KELLOGG, advance man of Beach & Bowers', was here yesterday billing his show and making ready generally. He says he goes ahead of the best show on the road. Walton's Opera House September 27.

THE new engineer of the Stanford and Logan's Creek pike, J. M. Corbin, of Lexington, has completed a re-survey of it and finds a very practical route, about the same as staked by Maj. H. A. Evans. The length is little less than two miles.

A PORTION of my fall and winter millinery has arrived and I invite an inspection of it from the ladies of Stanford and vicinity. Miss Lena Ellis, who has charge of my store, will be pleased to wait on or show goods to all who call. Mrs. M. F. Elkin.

MR. J. N. MENEFEE has contracted with W. F. Ramsey to build another story to his stable on Depot street. Mr. Menefee will also build another stable, which will be in connection with it, on the vacant lot on the left and which will give him ample room to do the large livery business he intends in the future.

THE case of Beatty Wickliffe, the negro who killed Evan Warren, was called at Danville Wednesday and a fruitless effort made to get a jury in the county. Judge Morrow then ordered the sheriff to go to Casey and summon 50 men to report yesterday. The trial will occupy the rest of the week, if indeed it does not take longer. The prisoner is represented by Ben Lee Hardin, George Denny and Mr. Nell and Capt. Herndon is assisted by John W. Yerkes, Robert Harding and Phil Thompson, Sr. Rev. John M. Crowe, now of Denver, who witnessed the murder, came all the way to testify in the case.

STILL PUNISHING THEM.—Mrs. Pete Cain was in Wednesday to secure a warrant for the detention of Mrs. Jim Cain, who recently ran off with her (Mrs. Pete's) husband, and was brought back Monday by Dink Farmer, who found her near Bancombe, Pulaski county. She said she was going to leave this country, to which she would never have returned had she known what was wanted of her. Mrs. Pete Cain, whose husband is now in jail for robbery and arson on testimony furnished by her, because he had left her for another woman, has had a checkered career. She was born in Tennessee and when quite young was married to Ralph Burkett, with whom she lived till his death at the hands of Wes Hanford, a negro boy, who struck him with a brick in a Christmas row here a few years ago. He left her with two little children and she went to live near Rowland. While living there a negro named Bob Logan entered her house by a window one night with intent to criminally assault her. The noise awoke her in time to get a pistol a neighbor had loaned her for self-protection, and she fired on the rascal, hitting him four times out of five shots. He was found sometime afterwards in the weeds, nearly dead from his wounds, and brought to jail, where he hovered for a long time between life and death. Recovering sufficiently for trial he was sent to the penitentiary for two years but died of his wounds. Two years ago or more Mrs. Burkett married Pete Cain and her life has not since been "happy all the day." Pete preferred the younger and pretty wife of his brother Jim and ran off with her not long ago. But for this he might now be a free man, for it was his deserted wife who gave him away. Mrs. Cain had a huge pistol with her when she came to town and those who knew her reputation did not bother her. She talked very lady-like to a reporter, however, but showed that she was a woman of sorrows and acquainted with grief. She is not over 30 years of age, but trouble and care have nearly wiped out the traces of youthful beauty, which once were hers.

A crazy father at Portsmouth, N. H., shot and killed three of his daughters.

Out of 200 delegates present in the South Carolina republican convention, only 15 are white and the negroes chose Bob Small temporary chairman.

The failure of Gardner Chase & Co., bankers and brokers, Boston, is reported; liabilities $2,000,000. The scarcity of money is the assigned cause.

The Mississippi convention practically settled the suffrage question by rejecting the educational and property qualifications for voters and making a $2 poll tax the only qualification where a man has resided in the State two years. A proposition to confer restricted suffrage on women was rejected.

Joseph Threlkeld made an attempt at Harrodsburg to shoot his wife, but was prevented. By his persistent ill-treatment she has been forced to leave him, and had gone to the office of Col. Phil Thompson for legal advice, when the attack was made. He was released on $500 bond to appear for trial next Monday.
